

ALLGAL[®] Tube & Pipe

All Australian and unique to Orrcon Steel

The ALLGAL[®] range is the only zinc coated tubular product made using wholly sourced Australian steel coil feed.

CHOOSE ALLGAL[®]

The only Australian made electro-galvanized tubular product manufactured using Australian feed. Unique to Orrcon Steel.

It's now more important than ever to know where steel products are made. Lots of people depend on local manufacturing, with many benefits flowing directly and indirectly to Australian communities.

Orrcon Steel plays a vital role in maintaining world-leading manufacturing capabilities, investing in high quality production facilities and employs skilled Australians with associated skills contributing greatly towards our country's future.

The specialised Electro galvanizing facility at Salisbury in Brisbane enables Orrcon Steel to produce Australian made ALLGAL[®] zinc-coated steel across a wide range of sizes from 1.6mm to 6.0mm.

3.2mm to 6.0mm sizes are a unique galvanized material - the only galvanized material using Australian sourced BlueScope feed ensuring the Australian Steel sector remains competitive.

Advantages of ALLGAL[®] coated Tube & Pipe Australian Made

ALLGAL[®] is locally Electro galvanized and manufactured by Orrcon Steel from BlueScope feed to one of the highest Australian standards.

Excellent availability through an extensive local distribution network.
